Whether bespoke or ready-to-wear, Hamilton Shirts still has us covered.

Family-owned and Houston-based, HAMILTON SHIRTS is something of a Texas institution. This year marks 125 years in the business and more than a century of outfitting the sharp-dressed man. Most things are still done the old-fashioned way—shirts are blade-cut for precision (no sissy hand scissors here)—but siblings Kelly and David Hamilton have ushered in twenty-first-century touches like an e-commerce site and a collection of ready-made shirts. With a firm belief in family traditions, Hamilton has also introduced a line called Boys for the toddler-to-teen set. hamiltonshirts.com PHOTOGRAPH BY SABRINA GRANDE
